Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, St Benedict's Catholic College encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by contacting the Exams officer or the Head of centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to the Exam Officer. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within The Head of centre will record the date the complaint is received and will acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within three college days. Within this response, the Head of centre will seek to clarify the nature of the complaint, ask what remains unresolved and what outcome the complainant would like to see. The Head of centre can consider whether a face to face meeting is the most appropriate way of doing this.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must Formal complaints must be made to the Head of centre (unless they are about the Head of centre), via the college office. This may be done in person, in writing (preferably on the complaint form), or by telephone.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of centre(or investigator) will:

- if necessary, interview those involved in the matter and/or those complained of, allowing them to be accompanied if they wish
- keep a written record of any meetings/interviews in relation to their investigation.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within fifteen college days of the date of receipt of the complaint.

If the Head of centre is unable to meet this deadline, they will provide the complainant with an update and revised response date.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must detail in writing why they are dissatisfied with the outcome and wish to take the matter further, they can escalate the complaint. A meeting with members of the governing body's complaints committee, which will be formed of the first three impartial governors available. This is the final stage of the complaints procedure.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 5 working days.

The appeal will be referred to the Clerk who will record the date the complaint is received and acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within five college days.

It will be the responsibility of the Clerk to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
