Data Breakdown
What will it be used for and what gives us the right to ask for it and use it?	The Purpose(s) :	The law requires us to create pupil records and maintain them until the young person reaches the age of 25. When a pupil changes school, this record will go with them and will not be retained by the previous school, other than to meet statutory returns. The information is provided by parent/carers, the local authority, the last education setting and any previous education settings.
	The Legal Condition(s) :	Our legal basis for processing personal data for this purpose is our Legal Obligation under The Education (School Records) Regulations 1989. Our legal basis for processing special category personal data is Substantial Public Interest (Data Protection Act 2018 Schedule 1, Part 2, section 6 (2) (a)).
How we limit the use of personal information	This information may be shared in order to comply with any legal obligation to do so, for example with the Department of Education; or where we feel there is a good reason that's more important than protecting your privacy, for example if there are serious risks to others, to protect vulnerable individuals, or where we have reason to believe there has been criminal or fraudulent activity. For information about your rights in relation to this use of your personal information please see section 5 of our overarching privacy notice. Please note, digital images may be retained in line with our privacy notices for Photos & Activities, and Marketing.
Who else might we share your data with?	This information may be shared in order to comply with any legal obligation to do so, for example with the Department of Education; or where we feel there is a good reason that's more important than protecting your privacy, for example if there are serious risks to others, to protect vulnerable individuals, or where we have reason to believe there has been criminal or fraudulent activity.

Will your data be stored in or accessible from countries with no UK-equivalent Privacy Law protections?		No personal information is routinely available outside of the UK. Should a transfer of personal information be necessary we will only do so where it is permitted by law and where appropriate safeguards are in place.
If your information leaves the country		When the pupil transfers to another education setting e.g. another school.
How long will your data be kept?	When will it stop being used?	Date of Birth + 25 Years
	How long after this will it be deleted?	Subject to exceptions – please refer to the school's Retention Schedule. A copy of our retention schedule can be requested from our school office
